

The MBADiversity Organization Announces Third National Symposium and Social

Paula White slated as Keynote speaker

April, 2007; Los Angeles, CA- The MBADiversity Organization will host its Third National Symposium & Social, Purpose: Navigating Your Path with Passion. The dynamic, popular event will be held August 17-18, 2007 at the Park Hyatt Philadelphia at the Bellevue in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The keynote speaker is Paula White, the renowned life coach, best selling author, and highly sought after motivational speaker and talk show host. Other speakers include Keith Clinkscales, senior vice president and general manager of ESPN Publishing and Dr. Peter Regan, creator of MBA Math, a live and online course designed to help incoming MBA students develop the quantitative skills they need to achieve their academic and professional potential. Baratunde, comedian, author and Harvard Philosophy graduate will perform again as Master of Ceremonies.

This cross-functional event is beneficial for:

- Prospective students-- the Symposium will include both application and class-preparation components, including a notable MBA Math finance workshop for prospective students who need to strengthen math and spreadsheet skills and show quantitative proficiency in their business school applications. Other workshops will include GMAT and essay preparation, a case study simulation and a career panel providing perspectives on various post-MBA opportunities;
- Current and alumni MBA students—the Symposium offers career and networking opportunities with top employers and participation in professional development workshop series;
- Schools and corporations-- the Symposium offers diversity recruitment and retention series and other professional workshops. The two-day symposium will also include high-impact MBA and corporate recruiting.

Space is limited. Registration and more information leading up to the event are available on MBADiversity.org. Interested company sponsors and recruiters from both traditional and non-traditional fields should contact the organization's Sponsorship Development Team at contactus@mbadiversity.org.

About MBADiversity (www.MBADiversity.org)

MBADiversity was initiated in 2003 by TMR Group, Inc., a non-profit organization, to help multicultural applicants gain admission to business schools and build their careers, as well as to foster a community of MBAs from diverse backgrounds. MBADiversity is an inclusive MBA prep program and professional membership organization, offering a global portal, a Fellows Program (which includes a GMAT® Prep Scholarship), and an Annual MBA Diversity Symposium & Social. These services help prospective students prepare for the GMAT®, write compelling essays and hone application strategies. Business schools and companies utilize MBADiversity.org to promote their institutions, recruit talented MBAs from across the world, and learn more about diversity recruitment and retention strategies.

About MBA Math (www.MBAMath.com)

MBA Math's mission is to be the most trusted source of pre-MBA math and spreadsheet skill development by students, admissions officers, and program administrators. Created by Dr. Peter Regan, who teaches the one-week pre-MBA quantitative skills course at Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College, the online version of the course is MBA relevant, time efficient, and convenient. Students from over 70 MBA programs use MBA Math to build a foundation of skills in finance, accounting, microeconomics, statistics, and spreadsheets. Prospective MBAs submit an MBA Math transcript to demonstrate proficiency and effort as part of their MBA admissions application.
